
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION (FAQ)

ADVERTISEMENT ON MYFUTUREJOBS FOR THE HIRING OF NON-RESIDENTS & EXPATRIATES IN SARAWAK

NO. 1/2021 | 12 JULY 2021

1. What are the objectives of advertising on MYFutureJobs as a precondition for hiring of non-residents and expatriates?

- Effective 1 January 2021, any employers wishing to hire non-Malaysian employees including expatriates are required to advertise the vacancy for at least 30 days on MYFutureJobs portal, under the purview of Ministry of Human Resources.
- As prerequisite for hiring of expatriates, employers are also required to conduct interview programs as an effort to recruit local talents that fulfill the criteria of the vacancy.
- However, there are certain expatriate posts that are exempted from advertising on MYFutureJobs as listed in question 8.

2. Is advertising on MYFutureJobs portal a precondition for hiring of non-residents and expatriates in Sarawak?

- Yes. Advertising on MYFutureJobs is a precondition that must be implemented by the employers before hiring of any non-residents and expatriates.
- MYFutureJobs recommendation for each application from employers will be reported to Department of Labour Sarawak and the Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak to be tabled to the Localisation Committee Meeting of Non-Resident and Expatriate.

3. What types of immigration passes are subjected to this policy implementation?

- Advertising on MYFutureJobs portal and conducting interview sessions are only applicable for the recruitment of expatriates through Employment Pass (EP) and Temporary Working Visit Pass (PLKS).

6. What are the advertising standards that must be complied by the employers?

- Each advertisement on MYFutureJobs portal must only be for one type of position. Employers are not allowed to advertise multi-positions in one advertisement. For example, Senior Human Resource Executive is allowed, but not Senior Human Resource Executive/ Human Resource Manager.
- The name of the position advertised must be the same as the position applied to the Approving Agency and Malaysian Immigration Department. Differences in the names of the positions may cause difficulties in the application process at the Approving Agency and Malaysian Immigration Department as the posts applied are different with those in MYFutureJobs portal.
- All mandatory information for advertising in MYFutureJobs portal must be completed. The user manual for advertising can be accessed through SOCSO's official website at www.perkeso.gov.my or [https://www.perkeso.gov.my/images/hiring_rehiring/010121 -
_Employer Manual For Expat FW v11.pdf](https://www.perkeso.gov.my/images/hiring_rehiring/010121_-_Employer_Manual_For_Expat_FW_v11.pdf)
- Job advertisement must be done through the account of the company applying for hiring of expatriate. Advertising of positions using another company's MYFutureJobs account is not allowed as approval issuance would be under the name of the company advertising for the post.
- Employer must ensure that the check box for "foreign/ expatriate application" is selected as an indicator that advertising is a prerequisite for hiring of expatriates. Failure to select the check box will result in advertising data not being processed.

7. What types of expatriate categories are set for hiring of expatriates?

- The minimum salary for expatriates is RM2,500 as in the following categories:

CATEGORY	MINIMUM SALARY	CONTRACT TERM	LIMIT
Employment Pass (PG 1)	>RM 5,000	More than 24 months	Maximum 5 years
Employment Pass (PG2)	RM2,500 – RM4,999.99	Less than 12 months	Maximum 2 years

Source: Ministry of Home Affairs / Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak

8. What types of positions are automatically exempted from this policy implementation?

9. Does the employer need to obtain an exemption letter from advertising on MYFutureJobs Portal?

- No. Exemption to the positions listed in question 8 is automatic and there is no requirement to obtain an exemption letter from SOCSO. Employers can directly deal with the Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak for expatriate position applications.

10. What would be the actions undertaken by the Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak if the positions applied by the employers are not included in the exempted category?

- Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak needs to inform the employer to go through the advertising process on MYFutureJobs Portal.
- 11. Is re-advertising still required for the purpose of employment pass renewal?
- No. For the purpose of extending the employment pass, employers are not required to re-advertise the vacancy and also not required to conduct interview programs.
 - Employers can deal directly with Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak for the purpose of applying for pass extension.
- 12. What system would be used by employers for the purpose of advertising vacancies?
- Employers must advertise the vacancies on MYFutureJobs portal through the link www.myfuturejobs.gov.my

- Employer needs to complete the Hiring Outcome Report for the interview activities conducted for each advertised posts. This report must be submitted after 30 days from the advertised date. The report can be submitted to SOCSO’s officers-in-charge listed in Appendix 2.

16. Are employers allowed to advertise the job vacancies and execute job placements through other methods and platforms?

- Yes. Employers are allowed to advertise vacancies or execute further actions using other appropriate methods. However, employers are still required to advertise the vacancies on MYFutureJobs portal for a minimum of 30 days.
- The effort of recruiting local talents can be implemented by conducting interview programs.

17. Will the actions and efforts of recruiting and placement of local workers affect the decision of the employer’s application for hiring of non-residents and expatriates?

- Yes. The Localisation Meeting of the Expatriate Committee (JKLE) or the Localisation Meeting of Employment of Non-Residents will convene to examine each employer's application based on the efforts that have been conducted to recruit local workers.

18. How can the employers check for status of hiring of non-residents and expatriates?

- Employers need to refer to Department of Labour Sarawak or MSEN System (For non-residents hiring) for further information on status and result for hiring of non-residents.
- For the application for hiring of expatriate, employers need to refer to Malaysian Immigration Department of Sarawak.

19. What are the benefits available to the employers who hire local workers?

- Through “Belanjawan 2021”, employers can receive financial incentives namely Hiring Incentive and Training Incentive under the PenjanaKerjaya 2.0 program.
- Government has also extended this program under “People's Protection and Economic Recovery Package” (PEMULIH). The application for PenjanaKerjaya 3.0 is extended until 31 December 2021.
